Delay Sought for Pine Grove Hearing

With the Planning Commission's public hearing on East Bay Municipal Utility District's rezoning application tentatively scheduled for November 17, 8 p. m., Pine Grove was again plummeted into the sharp limelight of controversy this week.

Meeting in Orinda School library Monday night, Orinda Association directors unanimously took the following actions:

1. Requested the Planning Commission to postpone the hearing "until such time that your technical staff and our Planning Committee exchange full and complete information."

2. Agreed that President Peter Veitch and Director Frank Cayting approach Planning Commissioner Joseph D. De Costa, Orinda resident, and ask De Costa to disqualify himself in this matter because he is an employee of EBMUD

3. Approved scheduling by the association's Orinda Planning Committee of an open meeting next Thursday night at 8 o'clock in Orinda School library, to which Orindans are invited for presentation of their views on Orinda planning, particularly the Pine Grove dispute over the requested Retail Business classification.

JOHN W. McFARLAND, EBMUD general manager, said later this week that the rezoning hearing "is what we've been waiting for."

"If November 17 turns out to be the date of the hearing, we'll appear and give all the facts we can," he said.

However, he added that if any discussion is held in the meantime by EBMUD and the Orinda Planning Committee, "we will be glad to talk things over and help clear away a lot of details."

Such discussion was suggested earlier by Joseph Creighton, acting chairman of the Orinda Planning Committee, who said:

"I feel that if we could sit down with EBMUD and have a thorough discussion, we could work out a sound solution which would not be detrimental to EBMUD."

DELAY OF THE HEARING is plausible, Assistant County Planning Technician H. Russell Griffith stated.

"The November 17 date is tentative," he said. "It's up to the commission to decide if the hearing should be delayed. It may make that decision next week."

The Orinda Association request for postponement was contained in a letter signed by Veitch. Wording of the letter was agreed on by directors after considerable discussion.

"WE TAKE THE POSITION that we are opposed to such rezoning until the completion of a master plan for Orinda," the letter stated.

"Until such time that your technical staff and our Planning Committee exchange full and complete information, and until such time that we can thoroughly consider all information by your technical staff and our Planning Committee, we request the Planning Commission to refrain from any action on this matter and to put this matter off calendar on November 17."

REGARDING DE COSTA, Creighton stressed to the association board that he was in no way impugning De Costa's integrity but he declared:

"I don't see how he can be in a position to act fairly in the matter when he is an employee of EBMUD."

Directors expressed the hope that De Costa will cooperate by disqualifying himself in any Planning Commission action on the controversy.

It was agreed that Veitch and Cayting would talk informally with De Costa and ask him to disqualify himself.

CREIGHTON RECALLED that at a conference last summer by the Orinda Planning Committee and County Planning Consultant Charles Hayes Diggs, County Planning Technician Tom Heaton, Griffith and Associate County Planner Richard Stockwell, a joint statement was issued in which it was agreed that no Pine Grove rezoning hearing would be scheduled until all basic facts on Orinda are obtained.

"We submitted facts gathered by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce on such details as business facilities and population trends," Creighton said.

"Since then, this matter has not been mentioned to us by the Planning Commission technical staff.

"We don't know what kind of study has been made. We want to know. Before any hearing, we would like to know the results of any investigation they have made."

The committee chairman said his group "has felt all along, and still feels, that we would like to take an intelligent attitude based on facts."

"OUR STUDY INDICATES," he continued, "that the requested rezoning is not a feasible scheme — but we want to know the facts before a hearing.

"We think the true solution to this problem is to expedite the master plan."

Director George Hauerken emphasized that "Orinda takes this problem very keenly."

EBMUD's application is for rezoning to Retail Business classification some 38 acres of Pine Grove land at the northeast corner of the Crossroaods and about 12 acres along the west side of Orinda Highway, between the Crossroaods and the Village.

Incorporation Cost To Be Studied-How?

Full investigation of the possibility of obtaining professional help in "an adequate study" of incorporation costs and expenditures for Orinda was authorized by the Orinda Association Board of Directors Monday night.

Board action followed a report by Chairman Frank Cayting of the incorporation study committee, who said the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association could probably make a complete study, with a report ready by the spring of 1954, for about $1000 to $1250.

Cayting said his committee met October 21 with Harry Morrison Jr., executive director of the Taxpayers' Association. As a result of this meeting, he said, the committee recommends "trying to find a way of financing work by some professional firm."

"The committee also suggests that the Taxpayers' Association be considered for the conducting of an incorporation study," Cayting added.

"WE CAME UP WITH this problem: There's a monumental amount of work involved in obtaining all essential facts and sifting through the pros and cons. Also, this will take a lot of time.

"Morrison said he thought his group could make a complete study and have a report ready by the spring of 1954 for about $1000 to $1250.

"The alternative was suggested by Morrison that our committee could do the work unnder Taxpayers' supervision, and that this would probably cost about $250 or $300."

Everett Howe, Orinda Association vice-president, asked:

"WHAT DID IT COST the Lafayette Improvement Association to get its incorporation-costs study made by the Coro Foundation?"

"Nothing, except for the mimeographing," Cayting replied.

"Was the report satisfactory?" Howe inquired.

"I don't think so," Cayting said. "It was an amateur report."

"Have you talked to the League of California Cities?" Howe asked.

"Yes — to Richard Graves, executive director, and Wilber Smith, field representative," Cayting answered. "There's a possibility the league may be able to do something for us, for a fee."

CAYTING AGREED TO check with the Taxpayers' Association on the nature of other incorporation studies it has made.

He also agreed to get in touch with Harold Furst, chairman of the Lafayette Improvement Association's incorporation study committee, to learn more about the Coro report.

Also, he said he would ask the League of California Cities for samples of incorporation studies it may have made.

Cayting said his committee suggested that financing of a professional study might be aided by having the delegates on the Civic Affairs Committee ask their respective organizations for contributions.

"Ramsay Underwood of the Chamber of Commerce indicated that the chamber would probably be happy to contribute," Cayting observed.

THE COMMITTEE HEAD reported that, according to Underwood, there has been some informal talk among Chamber of Commerce members about possible incorporation of "just the business area of Orinda."

"However, there's been nothing definite on that," he added.

A hot dog stand next to Orinda Hardware was mentioned during the incorporation-study discussion. It was cited as an example of the sort of thing over which a local city government would have control.

PRESIDENT Peter Veitch asked Anne Sanford, Civic Affairs recording secretary, to ask the Chamber of Commerce to send a representative to the next Civic Affairs Committee meeting to tell of the chamber's investigation of the hot dog stand.

AS THE UNITED CRUSADE IN DIABLO VALLEY goes into its fourth week, Campaign Chairman Duncan Knudsen (left) checks results of the drive with William Penn Mott Jr., president of Diablo Valley's United Crusade Advisory Board. With the halfway mark of the $3,242,498 goal in sight for the entire East Bay campaign, Knudsen is urging the volunteer work to redouble their efforts.

This was decided Monday night by the Orinda Association Board of Directors at the monthly board meeting in the Orinda School library.

Other time-table details of the election worked out by directors are:

Pine Grove on School Agenda Monday Night

The progress of the negotiations for the Pine Grove property between the School Board and East Bay Muncipal Utility District is expected to appear on the agenda of the School Board meeting Monday night at Orinda School at 8 p.m.

Also included on the agenda will be the opening of the Del Rey School, the policy on requests for dismissing children at 3 p.m. instead of 3:20, a review of the proposed building program and the all-purpose room at Glorietta School.

Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff commented that the school bus schedules have been straightened out and will be presented to the parents next week.

They are presently being worked out by the Acalanes High School District. Sheaff said the opening times of the schools would be affected but the closing times would not.

Possible Buildings on West Side of Orinda Highway Still Pendng – Wagner

Still pending are possible building projects along the west side of Orinda Highway, between the Crossroads and the Village, on land now owned by the East Bay Municipal Utility District, according to Phil Wagner, manager of the EBMUD properties division.

"There's really nothing new in the picture," Wagner said this week.

"THE PLANS OF Robert Bolman for a professional building across from Orinda School are waiting for the rezoning EBMUD is seeking.

"The Mormon Church is still interested in land between the professional building site and Country Club Realty. But there's been no deposit paid yet.

"There's nothing new in the possibility of a Shell service station across from Orinda Community Center property."

BOLMAN, WHO lives at 50 Camino Lenada, and Dr. W. M. Caygill of 11 Moraga Highway paid a deposit on a three-acre site across from Orinda School last spring.

Bolman announced plans for a modern professional building, with emphasis on medical and dental offices.

The Church of Latter Day Saints has made a survey of the land just north of the professional building site.

Demos to Hear Of Legislation

Trevor Thomas of Oakland will speak to the Orinda Democrats at 8 p.m. Wednesday, on the subject of "Recent Legislative Developments in Sacramento."

The meeting will be in the Livingston Room of the Orinda Community Church and will be followed by discussion and refreshments.

Thomas is Executive Secretary of the Friends Committee on Legislation of Northern California and has carefully studied legislative trends in this state and their relation to the national political scene.

The Orinda Democrats welcome all visitors who are interested in this subject.

Elects President

The Contra Costa Safety Council elected Samuel Conti, prominent young attorney of Pittsburg, to be president of the council for the coming year, at a meeting held on October 15 at the Junior College Campus in Pacheco.

Conti has been active for some time past on "Operation Safety," which is a coordinated effort to alleviate the danger of the Canal in Contra Costa County.

Warren Harrold Honored at Testimonial

Warren Harrold, retired fire commissioner of the Orinda Fire Distrcit, was honored with a surprise testimonial dinner Wednesday night by the Orinda Rotary and Lions Clubs.

The dinner came as a complete surprise to Harrold who listened in astonishment as such speakers as Captain Harry Oakley, Judge Wakefield Taylor, Jay Stevens, National Secretary of the Board of Fire Underwriters, Loren Bush, Chief Engineer for the Board of Fire Underwirters for the Pacific, Gilbert Earle and Zach Montgomery gave testimonials.

ZACH MONTGOMERY, secretary of the fire board, also represented the Orinda Association, of which he is a director. He gave a history of the Orinda Fire District and explained how the accomplishments were due to the efforts of Harrold.

Captain Harry Oakley presented Harrold with a gold fireman's badge on which was inscribed the years of service which he had devoted to Orinda.

All Harrold could say was "This token of esteem is something I will always cherish and remember."

Harrold served as president of the Fire Board from 1933 until his resignation last year. He was instrumental in forming the Orinda volunteer fire department prior to the organization of the district.

IT WAS POINTED out by Montgomery that the district has grown under Harrold from a small volunteer group to the present establishment with two fire houses, a full-time paid staff and the lowest fire insurance rate of any comparable community in the state.

"And," Montgomery said, "It has all been brought about due to the work and interest of Warren Harold."

The dinner at the Orinda Roost was the annual joint meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs and was called this year for the special purpose of honoring the fire board and Warren Harrold in particular.

About 64 people attended.

JACK CUMMINGS, chairman of the board of supervisors, was unable to be present but sent his congratulations by way of telegram.

Also sending telegrams of congratulation were Desmond Teeter, county administrator, and Justin Randall, county assessor.

Both service clubs presented Harrold with a camellia bush as a token of the services he has performed.

Stunned by Tax Bill? Be of Good Cheer!

Are you, like thousands of other taxpayers in Central Contra Costa and the rest of the county, somewhat on the woeful side this week, sadly contemplating, in the wake of your county tax bill, the imagined wreckage of your hopes for your purchase (and mayhap receipt) of Yuletide gifts?

Be of good cheer! The aforementioned thousands prove you're in good company. This is further attested by the announcement by County Tax Collector-Treasurer R. H. Kinney's office that all county tax bills for the 1953-54 fiscal year were mailed Monday.

"IF ANY TAXPAYER doesn't get his bill, he should get in touch with us and give us a description of his property," a cheery-voiced woman on Kinney's staff said.

Meanwhile, whether considered from a Yuletide-gift viewpoint or from just general desire for the niceties of life, what about that new fur coat, that new car or dishwasher, that trip to Mexico or Hawaii or —well, you name it!—that you've had your heart set on?

Advice on this problem, too (although not from a collector's office), is to be of good cheer. Somehow, it seems, these problems have a way of working out.

After all, county tax bills have a habit of popping up every year. And every year people buy new clothes and new gadgets and take trips.

WITH THAT SETTLED, you can take a deep breath and note the information that the first installment of your tax is due as of November 1 and will be considered delinquent after 5 p.m. December 10; that the second installment is due as of January 20 and will be considered delinquent after April 20, 1954.

In addition to the basic county tax rate of $2.449 per $100 assessed valuation (including 8 cents for county library requirements), taxpayers must pay taxes to the county for various districts, such as school, fire, sanitary and others.

MOST COMMUNITIES have a number of code numbers, with the districts and tax rates often varying for the different code numbers. Your code number is shown on your tax bill. Then you can have fun studying that list of county tax rates and figuring out how your total tax bill is arrived at.

Taxpayers in Pleasant Hill Code No. 7993 have the thrill of paying the highest total tax rate in the county—$12.711 per $100 assessed valuation.

HERE ARE THE high and the low listings for Central Contra Costa communities. (Canyon has only one code number listing.)

'Lucky Bucks' Urge: 'Look For Us, Get Prize Money!'

If dollar-bills could talk, each of the 10 "Lucky Bucks" being placed in circulation in this area by The SUN today would say:

"I may be right in your wallet or purse. If I am, I'm worth $25, $10 or $5 to you.

"But you'll never know if I'm here unless you look at all your one-dollar bills and compare their serial numbers with the serial numbers listed in The SUN."

So don't take any chance of missing out on exchanging a "Lucky Buck" for $25, $10 or $5. Be sure you check the serial numbers on your one-dollar bills with the list in this issue of THE SUN!

IF YOU HAVE one of the "Lucky Bucks" in your possession, just phone The SUN and arrange to receive your award. Then, between 9 a. m. today and 9 a. m. Friday of next week, bring the "Lucky Buck" to The SUN office and exchange it for the prize money.

At 9 a.m. Friday of next week a new SUN "Lucky Bucks" treasure hunt will be under way.

Each Friday The SUN places 10 "Lucky Buck" one-dollar bills in circulation — in stores in Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Lafayette and Orinda.

THE 10 "LUCKY BUCKS" of this past week must have felt pretty lonely.

For, although they were hopefully waiting to be noticed and exchanged for their treasure-hunt worth, apparently nobody recognzed them.

Result was that, up to press time, no winners were reported in the "Lucky Bucks" treasure hunt of the week.

WILL THE 10 "Lucky Bucks" being placed in circulation today avoid being unnoticed and unexchanged?

Registration Is GOP Subject

Orinda Young Republicans met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gregory, Hillcrest Drive, for their regular monthly meeting Thursday, October 22.

Bill Anderson, registrar, emphasized the importance of acquainting new residents of the community with registration requirements and the locations where registrars are available.

He reminded members that California law requires a voter to have been a resident of the state for one year, of the county 90 days and of the precinct 54 days.

In connection with their current membership drive, members present at the meeting called on families in the Glorietta area to explain the activities of the Orinda Young Republican club.

Adjustment Board Second Hearing to Be Held Tuesday

With specific suggestions already percolating energetically, the County Planning Commission will hold its second public hearing on proposed establishment of a Board of Adjustments at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Room 210 of the Hall of Records in Martinez.

The commission scheduled the second hearing after a two-hour initial hearing last Friday at which various setups were urged by representative groups.

The Planning League of Contra Costa County and the Contra Costa Real Estate Board endorsed the plan in principle, but each suggested a breakdown aimed at streamlining procedure and facilitating master plan development.

BRINGING LAND use and zoning variance hearings closer to home for areas affected was a key point in the proposals offered by President Boone Robinson of the Plannin League of Contra Costa County and Executive Vice-President King Parker Jr. of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, according to Associate County Planner George Brenner.

Robinson suggested that a nine-member Board of Adjustments be established, to be divided into three sections of three members each, according to area.

Each section could then deal effectively with land use and zoning variance matters for its area and hold hearings in the area, he pointed out.

IN THIS WAY the work load of the entire Board of Adjustments would be split up, he said. He added that one member of each panel of three could be a county planning commissioner.

These suggestions were made by Robinson verbally and also in a letter he submitted as Planning League president.

In later discussion at the first hearing, Robinson declared that the over-all planning duties of the Planning Commission, particularly development of a county master plan, should be a full-time job for that body.

That necessitates, he stated, that the Board of Adjustments — which is planned for the handling of minor variance applications — should be so organized as to streamline the procedure and leave the Planning Commission free to deal with major planning problems.

PARKER PROPOSED that the Board of Adjustments consist of five divisions or sub-boards, each for one of the supervisorial districts in the county.

Each division or sub-board, he said, ought to be made up of representatives of the various groups in that supervisorial district.

PLANNING LEAGUE arguments were also voiced by Ed Rowland, league executive committee member, and Richard R. Nesbitt, league secretary.

They emphasized the points raised by Robinson.

Rowland said he did not think the planning commissioners could adequately perform both the job of major over-all planning and the task of hearing land use and zoning variance applications.

COMMISSIONERS pointed out that the avowed purpose of the proposed Board of Adjustments is to allow the commission time for master planning and over-all work but stated it would be difficult to administer more than one board.

They said that the holding of hearings in various part of the county and the resultant extra staff work might prove cumbersome.

Park Council Asks Formation Of Commission

At a meeting of Contra Costa Park Council a resolution offered by John Nejedly of Walnut Creek that a County Park Commission be formed as quickly as possible was passed.

This commission would be established by the County Board of Supervisors to work for the establishment of parks in Contra Costa County.

The park council, headed by Alvin A. Burton of Walnut Creek, is a group of people working for a park system in the county.

Supervisor Ray Taylor, present at the meeting, said that he feels the supervisors are interested in parks because the park council is bringing out a need for parks and recreation in this county. He also said he hopes that next year money can be set aside for a park system.

Everett Gale, recreation director in Pleasant Hill, welcomed members and guests to the Pleasant Hill School where the meeting was held. Chairman for the evening was Edward Clay of Pleasant Hill.

Richard Stockwell, county planning staff member, showed maps of present population and most likely places for parks. He also said that funds are available from the state to match county funds, but that parks thus established would be state parks.

Speaker for the evening, David Brower of Berkeley, discussed conservation. Brower is executive director of the Sierra Club.

First annual dinner meeting will be held November 19 at the El Nido with Robert Durand as chairman. William Penn Mott of Orinda will speak. At this time election of officers will be held.

Karl Kasten to Show Paintings

A preview party to "Meet the Artist" is scheduled to take place Sunday at the Artists Market, Stuart Street, Lafayette.

These Sunday afternoon exhibits have proven to be highly successful due largely to having the artists in attendance. The public is invited to attend and the showing will be from 4 to 6 p.m.

The paintings of Karl Kasten will be presented at this preview party. Kasten is an outstanding artist and is known both on the West Coast and in the East.

He is Assistant Professor of Art at the University of California and has taught at San Francisco State and at the University of Michigan.

Vice-Chairman G. H. Macey of Pleasant Hill was again chosen to assist Graff, and to head the public relations committee.

RAY VAN TASSELL, Danville, District Commissioner at the present time, will become Advancement Committee Chairman, and his position will be filled by Glenn Gleason, Walnut Creek, who is now Assistant District Commissioner.

Committee Chairmen appointed by Graff are as follows:

Leadership training, C. R. Laudie, principal, Oak Park School; advancement, Van Tassell; organization and extension, Marvin A. Moler, Pleasant Hill; camping and activities, Tom Mika, Orinda; health and safety, S. C. Peakes, Lafayette; finance, Duncan Knudsen, Lafayette; public relations, Macey.

Members-at-large elected to the District Committee for 1954 include all the above men, with the addition of the following: Anthony J. Tarlock, A. T. Handley and K. R. Cunningham, Danville; Charles A. Bowers, Ian McLaughlin, George Sullivan, Walnut Creek.

Plans were laid for the annual district social, November 18 at Acalanes High School cafeteria. This is to be a "pot-luck" dinner, it was announced, and every sponsoring institution is invited to send its entire Scouter membership and their partners.

'IS THERE NO CHIVALRY!' is the tremulous plea of Mrs. Norman Appel as obviously unsympathetic Leon Cohen (left) and Harry Freeman smirk and glower in a scene in "The Drunkard," a melo drama to be presented at Lafayette Town Hall Saturday evening, November 7, and Sunday evening, November 8, by the League of Jewish Women. Tickets Going Fast for 'The Drunkard'

Saturday evening, November 7, will be the opening night of "The Drunkard," melodrama to be presented at Lafayette Town Hall by the League of Jewish Women.

A second performance will be given Sunday evening, November 8.

Curtain time each night is 8:30.

The November 7 performance is completely sold out, according to Mrs. I. L. Leiber, publicity chairman.

HOWEVER, TICKETS are still available for the November 8 performance. Mrs. Leiber urged that persons desiring to enoy that evening's show make sure they are not disappointed by phoning Mrs. Robert Robinson at YEllowstone 4-2759 for reservations.

Proceeds will benefit the Jewish Community Center of Contra Costa County, which is housed in the former Planter's Dock building in Lafayette.

THE PRODUCTION, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sidney Lifton of Walnut Creek, will feature, in addition to the melodrama, a variety of olio numbers and community singing in which all the audience will participate.

A highlight will occur in the barroom scene with Miss Barbara Hunter's singing of "Frankie and Johnnie." Miss Hunter won acclaim for her rendition of this song in "Love Rides the Rails," recently performed by Lafayette Playshop at Lafayette Town Hall.

A CHORUS OF Can-Can girls which has been rehearsing its routine under the direction of Mrs. Elliott Karlins will also take part in this scene. Its members include Mrs. Fred Katzburg, Miss Sue Price, Miss Loretta Hommel Karlins and Mrs. Karlins.

Beer, sandwiches and other refreshments will be sold throughout each evening to the audience, which will be seated at tables, as was customary in the playhouses of olden days.

Cummings Hopes For Rapid Transit Use of SN Route

H. L. Cummings, chairman of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and member of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission, stated this week that coordinated efforts will be made for possiole use of Sacramento Northern facilities in this area for rapid transit.

Cummings called attention to the study recently started for the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission. He said:

"The commission hired a New York engineering firm to make this study in the last month or so, and the engineers are starting on the study.

"I BELIEVE THAT they have in mind the Sacramento Northern route as a potential site for some form of rapid transit. Certainly this route will be carefully studied.

"However, I believe that right now they are concentrating on the metropolitan area — San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda."

Cummings said that this county will coordinate its efforts regarding Sacramento Northern with the Rapid Transit Commission and the State Division of Highways.

"CONTRA COSTA COUNTY will try to protect the route for possible rapid transit use," he stated. "Of course, it's impossible to say now what type of rapid transit may prove feasible — monorail, diesel or some other form.

"This county's aim is to take action for the best interests of the people of Contra Costa County in this matter. We will coordinate our efforts with those of the Rapid Transit Commission and the State Division of Highways."

Western Pacific Railroad's plans to abandon some 15 miles of its Sacramento Northern tracks from 40th Street and Shafter Avenue, Oakland, to West Lafayette station.

HOWEVER, THESE plans hinge upon the obtaining by the Oakland Terminal Railway of a franchise for four-tenths of a mile of track on Union Street in Oakland. The Oakland Terminal Railway is jointly owned by Western Pacific and Santa Fe Railroads.

OTR's franchise application is scheduled for third and final reading and for vote by the Oakland City Council at 7:30 p.m. November 10.

Even though the franchise ordinance could not become effective until early next year, present plans, if the franchise is voted by the Oakland City Council, call for Western Pacific promptly to apply to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon the 15 miles of Sacramento Northern tracks and for Oakland Terminal Railway to apply to the ICC for permission to build the Union Street tracks.

CUMMINGS CITED the fact that the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has informed Western Pacific of its interest in possible acquisition of the SN roadbed in this county, thus opening the way to negotiations with WP.

Highway Group's Board Will Meet Monday Evening

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation will be held at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Horace Breen, 80 Camino Encinas, Orinda, it was announced this week by Chairman Elliot J. Hartman.

Hartman stated county roads in the Lafayette area would be discussed to determine possibilities of further improvement of the secondary road system.

Also to be discussed will be ultimate disposition of the Sacramento Northern right of way, with the possibility of sections being taken under the county road system or the state Shepherd Canyon route.

Hartman also stated plans for the November general meeting of the federation would be completed.

At the November meeting Contra Costa County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer will talk on the county road bond issue projects, outlining engineering and actual work done to date and plans for immediate work in the future, according to Hartman.

McKirahan Heads Commuters Group

At its first meeting Tuesday night at Acalanes High School, the new Board of Directors of the Contra Costa Commuters Association nominated and elected the following officers:

President, John E. McKirahan, Lafayette; vice-president, Charles Wood Jr., Orinda; treasurer, Gordon Bigelow, Walnut Creek; secretary, Gladys De Lesche, Orinda.

PRIOR TO TAKING office, McKirahan reported on the state of service by Greyhound, which he described as having deteriorated due to lack of supervision.

He said the situation was aggravated by rotation of drivers, who because of their new five-day week, had their Contra Costa runs filled on their days off by drivers from other runs who were unfamiliar with runs and schedules in this area.

He stated buses were running late and were overcrowded, with Pacific Greyhound evidencing little interest, but he expressed hope that something could be done soon.

Upon taking office, McKirahan welcomed the new directors and stated the association's work could be done only by the constant cooperation of the entire board, supplemented by aid from members.

HE APPOINTED Marge Allendorph as vice-chairman of the membership committee and he named a service committee composed of Art Wetherbe, Victor Johnson and Leroy Sowers.

McKirahan appointed Bob McClelland as delegate to the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation. He named Ester Anderson as contact with the Marin County Federation of Commuters Associations and Fred Folliard to head the finance committee.

The board discussed next year's membership drive, for which basic plans were outlined.

Worthless Checks Being Passed Here

Worthless checks are being passed by a gang operating primarily in Walnut Creek and Lafayette, Sheriff's Inspector Norman Wilson warned this week.

Checks passed have been payroll checks stolen from the following Bay Area firms. Tyrell T. Gilb, Ebo Construction Company and Haigs Otto Reconstruction Fender and Body Works.

Many of the checks have been made payable to J. Lamburth, Wilson said.

He said that more than 25 worthless checks for from $60 to $80 had been passed in the area.

Sewer District Advisory Group Will Discuss Excess Water With Improvers

Ford Tussing, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, announced this week that "volunteer water" will be the chief subject of a public meeting Wednesday.

The meeting will be held at the district office, 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, at 8 p.m.

Also on the agenda will be a complete report on the committee's activities to date.

HE URGED THAT EACH improvement club in the district have a member present to hear the report and carry the information back to his respective group.

Tussing commented that the main problem to be discussed—volunteer water—is a matter of importance. The committee will explain what can be done to solve the problem and what it will cost if action is not taken, he said.

A MEMBER OF THE committee explained that this was the most practical way to reach each improvement club in the district. He said that it is practically impossible for the committee to visit each club and report in detail, but that this way a large group of people can be informed quickly.

Tussing said that representatives will be invited to ask questions re-

New Santa Maria Church Spanish Style

The new Santa Maria Catholic Church to be erected next spring behind the Orinda School will be located on one of the most beautiful sites in the United States, according to the Rev. David Harrington.

The church, which will cost about $250,000, will be of the Spanish style of architecture. "One of the striking features," said Rev. Harrington, "will be the Spanish Tower."

THE CHURCH will have a terra cotta tile roof, and although there will be no bells, it will have electronic chimes which are operated from a phonograph record.

They are presently in use in the little Santa Maria Church.

A hall, church building and rectory will be constructed on the 14-¾ acre site.

"The hall will be fully equipped with a stage and a very large cafeteria," Rev. Harrington said, "and it will seat about 500 people. It will be used for church social functions and business meetings.

"THE CHURCH building proper will seat 528 people and will have a new electric organ," he added.

He explained that the site has been graded into three terraces. The church and hall will be located on the second terrace and the rectory on the first.

"And there will be plenty of parking," said the priest. "We will have ample facilities on the third terrace for automobiles, as well as on the first two."

THE GRADING WORK has already been done and the sewer lines are being installed. There won't be any street work at this stage of the development.

Rev. Harrington said he expected that bids will be let in January and that construction will start as early in the spring as possible. He expects construction to take about 10 months.

Landscaping is not included in the cost estimates. "We think that will be done by the Santa Maria Men's Club," said the priest.

Monthly Payment Ordered in Suit

George Robert Klement, Oakland furrier, has been directed by Superior Judge Hugh H. Donovan to pay $200 monthly toward support of his wife, Helen, 10 Valley View View Road, and two children pending trial of her separate maintenance suit.

Mrs. Klement's suit seeks $350 monthly for support of herself and $100 each for three children, aged 19, 17 and 13.

Judge Donovan's temporary order also requires the husband to pay all current bills as well as the elder son's expenses at Santa Clara University.

'Thank You' Sign Sure Helps Out

Motorists who drive through Orinda with the crossroads project sort of gumming things up don't feel quite as irritated as they might, thanks to Frederickson and Watson's Bob Calou.

Bob is the gentleman who has put a smile on the face of almost all the drivers passing the construction project.

As they enter the construction zone, motorists see a large sign stating "Please Drive Carefully." But after they leave the construction zone there is another.

It says, "Thank You."

GUESS THERE'S no need to remind you that tomorrow's the day to batten down the hatches, turn on your porch lights and stock up on treats for the junior masqueraders who'll be ringing your doorbells.

Halloween is lots of fun for the younger set but many a mother is frantic about now with last minute costume changes for her little goblins.

SOME OF THE parents will be having their "treat" tonight at the dance being held at the Montclair Women's Club by the junior membership of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Among the representatives from the Orinda Juniors are June and Walter Estes, "Tink" and Wally Ammon, Helen and Tom Kling, Modesto and Howard Libby, Lorna and Vernon Louis, and Beverly and Ed Winthers.

The Winthers entertained the group at the home on Hillcrest Drive before the dance.

Incidentally, Ed has been bringing home the limit on ducks during hunting season. So in case any of you birds read The SUN, steer clear of Grizzly Island, or, to coin a clinche', you'll be a "dead duck."

More animals in the news . . . Don "Hutch" Hutchinson of Sleepy Hollow had an interesting interlude with a bear at McCloud River where he went to enjoy a week's hunting and fishing.

It seems the bear insisted on making his home in a tree overlooking the cabin. One of the hunters was Larry Armstrong of Santa Rosa who has a summer camp for children, with a zoo no less! So he wanted to take the grizzly home intact but it was an uncooperative beast so they finally had to shoot it. Now the Hutchinson's are invited to a bear barbecue at the Armstrong's next month.

Another four-footer played a part in a less exciting episode recently. Susan Gregg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Gregg, and Jill McCaffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCaffrey, were invited to appear on Ray Bohanon's Funny Paper Party on television station KPIX.

Jill brought along her pet, a mammoth St. Bernard named "Bing." Getting the little girls ready for their television debut was nothing compared to the effort spent on rousing Bing (every try to wake up a sleepy St. Bernard?) and brushing him to look his best.

He was quite a hit on the program and Jill and Susan were each given a gift for their part in the show — a large stuffed dog.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Hanford and Mr. and Mrs. Kriet Baldwin recently spent a wonderful three days at the Sands hotel in Las Vegas. The Hanford's three children and the Baldwin's four stayed at home while their parents enjoyed their short vacation. To top it off, they spent an evening in San Francisco for dinner ad dancing.

BARBARA AND JACK Rieser recetly entertained 18 guests for dinner at their home on Ridge Lane.

Charles Steinis of Van Ripper Lane has enrolled and is now attending the Palmer School of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa.

The John E. Pinnes of Sleepy Hollow recently attended the Structural Engineers Association of California convention held at the Ahwahnee hotel in Yosemite. John is president of the association.

Trekking to Palo Alto for the Stanford-Washington State College game tomorrow will be Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Currie and Mr. and Mrs. Worth L. Wakers of Tara Road.

Ann Currie and Chris Wagers were both students at WSC and the two couples will join other alumnai at a dinner after the game on the Peninsula.

Badges, Badges . .

Mrs. Arthur White's Girl Scout Troop 74 has an exciting program lined up for the year.

Mrs. Arthur Bowman instructed her patrol in the Outdoor Cook Badge. For their final achievement, Bonnie Ott, Suzanne Solomon, Linda Kronke, Ann Fredrickson, Linda Hart, Irene Ingram, Barbara Bowman and Jean McMillan prepared lunch for the rest of the troop October 26 at Redwood Canyon Park.

MRS. ROBERT SMITH took her patrol, consisting of Victoria Adams, Linda Benson, Louise Cianciarulo, Karen Smith, Sally DeWitt, Gayle Erickson, Joan Kowkes and Suzanne Schrader, through the swimming badge.

Mrs. W. B. Adams helped the patrol leader with the swimming instruction.

Mrs. Harry Benson assisted the girls in finishing up a folk dancing badge.

RAY ENSMINGER of Grizzly Peak stables has instructed eight girls from this troop in the horsewoman badge.

On October 20, Lynnie Ballard, Barbara Bowman, Gayle Erickson, Ronalee Klinkner, Donna Lane, Carol Loewen, Tmylee White and Kathleen White celebrated the completion of this badge by a moonlight ride in Tilden Park, escorted by Mrs. Seaver Ballard and Mr. and Mrs. Ensminger.

While they were on their ride, Mrs. White and Mrs. Howard Lane prepared a wienie roast.

52 Carnival

Orinda Cub Pack 52 will stage a gala carnival on Saturday, November 7, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Glorietta School. Everyone — young and old, is welcome to come and enjoy himself.

There will be booths and concessions galore with all the standard type games of skill and chance, as well as many novel and fascinating ones.

Food, both hot and cold, will be sold at reasonable prices. Tickets for the concessions will be 5 cents apiece, with good shots receiving a prize.

Would you like a big, fat turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner? Wonder who will be eating it — How about you? Because one will be given away at the carnival.

Hay and Pumpkins

Mrs. John Gompertz's Girl Scout Troop 46 decorated the Gompertz garage with corn stalks, hay and pumpkins.

The 23 girls in the troop and 23 boys danced, bobbed for apples and had a wonderful pre-Halloween party.

207 Bean Feed

The annual bean feed given by Boy Scout Troop 207 for their families was held at the Orinda Community Church Tuesday night.

A group of mothers headed by Mrs. Nat Dodge, prepared a delicious dinner for the group — the menu of course was highlighted by their well-known beans.

After dinner the tables were cleared away and the official films of this year's International Jamboree were shown, followed by the slides taken by Scoutmaster Jerry Cullen and Senior Patrol Leader Steve De Maria at the same Jamboree.

African Safari

Lion, Tiger, Crocodile and Antelope! These were seen by the Brownies of Troop 197 on October 20 when the Snow Museum of Oakland took them on a guided tour of Africa.

To get in the proper cannibalistic mood, the Brownies all ate brownies before they started on the trip.

Those who went on this safari were Nancy Bregar, Sally Farnum, Mary Ann Howard, Diane Madden, Linda Poyell, Patty Newsom, Jeanne Reynolds, Nancy Sullivan and Susan Wagner. Mrs. Bregar and Mrs. Wagner went also.

In the near future the Snow Museum will take them to visit the Far North and to see all the other strange and fascinating things on display throughout the Museum.

Scavenger Hunt

On October 16 Girl Scout Troop 47, led by Mrs. Vernon Axelson, had a scavenger hunt. Each car carried two couples and took off from the Mel Nickerson home to search for such items as lipsticks, tooth brushes, pennies, rubber bands and bottles.

The car to return first and claim the prize of four free movie tickets belonged to Becky Harris, Bonnie Nickerson, Tom Mika and Bill Thurlow.

The entire party then moved out to the F. R. Devin home in Moraga and danced and consumed their fill of hot dogs, doughnuts and cider.

New Brownies

Mrs. Ray Messersmith's home on Irvine Road was the scene where the following girls became Brownies in an investment service conducted by Mrs. E. A. Law Jr.:

Karen Creighton, Jennifer Davey, Suzanne Elden, Catherine Gregg, Dana Gregory, Susanne Harrer, Sally Law, Wendy Maehler, Suzanne Mann, Cheryl Messersmith, Lawrie Nilmeier, Fran Pettler and Claudia Powell.

They make up the new Brownie Troop 12.

All the mothers attended the service and were served cakes decorated in the Brownie theme.

Troops Combine

Girl Scout Troops 28 and 31 have combined to form one troop, No. 28.

Joan E. Clark, the scribe reports that all the girls and their mothers enjoyed a movie at the home of Mrs. T .M. Harrer.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

DURING OUR CURRENT incarceration, which comes as a direct result of having caught a cold in the head, we have been amusing ourself by reading a little book on the subject of "How to Write a Column."

Point 1) "Hard work is a column's most valuable asset"—Humph—Our only comment on that one is that sometimes, without any effort at all, you get what you least expect. For instance, not long ago, we were in an alien grocery store and there right in front of everybody, we ran out of money. Could we write a check? Oh, yes, indeed. Should we write our address on the check? Oh, yes, indeed. Did he want our phone number? We-ell, drawled he with a wicked glint in his eye, We-ell all right lady!

How about psychoanalysis?

POINT 2) "It is necessary for the columnist to create a well defined personality for himself before people will follow him regularly." Over that one we get the meagrams and vapours (Elizabethen expression meaning the fidgets and the flops). When we consder the prattle we have tossed at you for the past three years and discover, at this juncture, that we have been creating a personality for ourselves we realize that we had better quickly clean up the unpaid bills and leave town.

Point 3) "Most New York columnists have found it helpful in building reader interest to create certain fictitious personalities to introduce frequently." When we recollect the vast assortment of bugs, animals, fish and certain members of our family who appear at intervals in this column we realize that the circumspect and conventional activities of a fictitious personality would come to you as somewhat of a shock..

POINT 4) "THE COLUMN writer must necessarily be allowed considerable freedom in his method of expressing his thoughts." OH, OH: We never should have read that one—now we will bounce through the news with a leer and a wing and let out a lot of ideas we have heretofore kept under control on account of we thought we should.

AND SO THE NEWS: On Tuesday a week ago Eleanor Forbes came to Orinda from Gump's to edify the ladies who bought tickets for the Orinda Branch lecture series. It was quite an affair—the ladies looked most attractive and the speaker was introduced by Mrs. Stephen Jensen —also looking attractive.

Among other things Miss Forbes brought samples of materials made on the looms which produced the coronation robes — crimson and purple velvets, upholstery fabrics with the royal coat of arms and white satin from Queen Elizabeth's dress. Miss Forbes also explained that the new trend in furnishings is Southwestern—New Mexico and Arizona in feeling—so if you see some of your friends doing the marketing with a sombrero on head and rose between the teeth you will know whence the inspiration.

AFTER THE LECTURE the ladies were invited to inspect Roberta Fittinger's delightful pastel and oil portraits. Good idea for Christmas incidentally. Then luncheon and the Joseph Magnin fashions were modeled by Mesdames Fred Borden, Lyle York, Stephen Jensen (didn't she have a busy day of it though) Robert Jurs and John MacFarland. Mrs. Theodore Beckett commentated and Mrs. James McDonald pianofied. An extra good lunch or you could order a la carte.

Incidentally there are four more lectures—the next to be "Investment Facts for Women" on November 17—if you want to come to them for a dollar fifty each it is all right with us but if your Grandmother came from Scotland you will be interested to know it is cheaper to buy the series even if you missed the first one—particularly in view of the fact you can take a guest on the unused ticket. Call Orinda 7321.

A twirl with the social whirl

Parties, parties, parties for the John Russel Deans (Major General) who are moving to Washington and then London. The Herbert Atkinsons will be moving into their house. The John Gompertz' entertained with "cocktails and casseroles," the Atkinsons with cocktails, Mrs. Clay Sorrick with a luncheon. At one of the parties there were silly gifts so, of course, a monocle or two.

Peggy Gompertz will be home from Castelea this weekend.

Interesting recent visitor—Cole Williams, brother of Mrs. Kerry Keresy—interesting because of his advertising activities with Life magazine.

BY PREVIOUS ARRANGEMENT with the fellow in charge; by special dispensation from the major powers; or by a little fancy blackmail to whoever takes care of such things Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Delancy negotiated a balmy, breezeless, star-hung evening for their cocktail party on Sunday last.

Imagine staging such a shenanigan the last week in October and assuming that the weather is going to be compatible to your plans—and having it work! Anyway the guests swarmed all over the house and gardens of that picturesque Cape Cod house just off the fifth green and everyone was captivated with the charm and the cheer and the turkey sandwiches. Earlier in the day they certainly missed a bet though, they could have sold balcony seats for that Lou Worsham, Lloyd Mangrum, Hy Hennings, Tal Smith golf match. For heaven's sake what are we talking about—we could have done the same thing.

"I went to the animal fair . . ."

The lady elephants assembly last Monday for tea and talk. Some wore large hats, some wore small hats and some wore no hats. They came from far and near in Contra Costa County to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lyon to gaze at the beautiful view of Diablo, to partake of tea and cup cakes and to listen to the gentleman elephant, Senator Thomas Kuchel. The Senator was not alone in his glory because there was one other gentleman on hand—a Lyon. But be they Lyons or elephants they were all Republicans gathering education and inspiration for the future.

The meeting of the GOP
Was the opposite of FLOP
Enthusiasm there
With good spirit everywhere
Successful type of gathering
With tea—(or coffee if you'd rathering)
And many, many people
To hear Senator Kuchel.

If you have stuck with us through thick and thin you know that upon occasion, Mr. Newspaper has had to pull us out of predicaments, clean up our spelling, straighten out our facts and tie up loose ends. The latest is the addition of captions to our preciously unparagraphed, unpunctuated column. We can hardly wait until Fridays to see what he has been up to this time but last week was the cleverest of all when, over our poem (?) about Small Daughter's measles he put " A Terse Verse for a Sick Chick."

That is all.

Feed, Activities Keep 200 Busy

The boys of Orinda Scout Troop 200 started their fall activities very pleasantly by being invited to barbecue a dinner at the home of Scoutmaster Reginald Tibbett recently.

In fact, the activities were especially noticeable in the swimming pool and around the ice cream bar.

LATER IN THE evening, a group of the dads got together and set up a Troop Committee organization, of which Abe Doty is going to be chairman.

Tibbetts announced a plan to have troop meetings at the Scout Hut on the first and third Mondays of each month, alternating with evening patrol meetings on the second and fourth Mondays. The patrol meetings will rotate from one boy's house to another so that every dad can help his boy's patrol considerably with their merit badges and advancement work.

When there is a fifth Monday in a month, it will be used for something special, like an achievement award meeting.

HERB HAUSER of the Orinda Rotary Club, which sponsors Troop 200, recounted some of his firsthand experiences among the 50,000 Boy Scouts at the Jamboree in Santa Ana this summer.

A greatly appreciated $200 gift from Orinda Rotary helped several of our boys to participate there.

Incidentally, those dads who did not take part in the Scout Hut renovation work will be surprised at how nice the place looks now.

Road Projects OK'd by County

Crescent Drive in Orinda Oaks and Santa Lucia Road in Haciendas Del Orinda Unit 7 were accepted as county roads by the Board of Supervisors recently.

At the same time, the board accepted a check for $1000 from property owners on Santa Lucia Road and a check for $250 from Haciendas Homes, Inc., to be applied to improvement of the road by the county.

The $1250 represents the local property owners' contribution to the estimated $2500 cost of the Santa Lucia project.

In another action, the board accepted $3000 from the El Gavilan Road Association as its contribution to the estimated $10,000 cost of improvements planned for El Gavilan in Haciendas Del Orinda Units 6 and 8.

These road actions were taken on recommendation of County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer.

Sauer explained that the El Gavilan job will include four-inch crusher run base, double seal and installation of necessary drainage.

Party to Assure Early Start On Weimar Kids' Yule Gifts

With all reservations having been filled, the Women for Weimar's semi-annual dessert card party Wednesday promises to be a real boon for th 72 children at Weimar Sanitorium.

Of course, the youngsters won't be at the party, which will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Navone, 58 Tara Road, Orinda, starting at 1 p.m. But they'll actually be the "guests of honor"—for the proceeds of the party will be used to purchase Christmas gifts for them.

Mrs. George Klement, chairman of the event, announced this week that all reservations have been filled.

WEDNESDAY'S PARTY will be a prelude to the Women for Weimar's annual drive for Christmas gifts for the youngsters at the tuberculosis sanitorium near Colfax in Placer County. Each year The SUN joins with the local-area women's group in sponsoring this drive.

Prizes to be awarded at the card party have been donated by Ewart Phair, owner of the Orinda Store. In addition, members of the party committee are donating homemade cakes and pies to be awarded as prizes.

Decorations, which will be in a Thanksgiving motif, are being made by the boys of Den 4 of Orinda Cub Pack 12. Mrs. Bruce S. Howard is den mother.

KNIGHTSEN GRAMMAR School fifth graders recently held a party to raise money for the Weimar children. This party was in response to a general appeal by the Women for Weimar for assistance in aiding the youthful patients.

Mrs. L. L. Farrar, chairman of the Women for Weimar, reported that the proceeds realized by the Knightsen students, when received, will be placed in the Christmas-gifts fund.

Assisting Mrs. Klement in arranging next Wednesday's party are Mrs. Wayne Littlejohn, in charge of reservations; Mrs. Farrar and Mesdames Ron Anderson, E. I. Spiegl, Zach Montgomery, Roger Dexter, Robert Diehl, Ida Zamloch, Margaret Winters, Kenneth Anderson, T. E. Jeffries and George Vurek.

WEIMAR SANITORIUM is operated by 14 counties, including Contra Costa. Mrs. Vurek is treasurer of the Weimar Council. She is also president of the Contra Costa Public Health Association.

Women for Weimar was organized several years ago among Orinda women. Its membership has since increased to include women from elsewhere in Central Contra Costa County.

Although the group describes itself as "loosely knit," there is nothing haphazard about its year-'round activities. In addition to its annual "Christmas for Weimar" campaign, the group provides brthday gifts for each child at Weimar, sends appropriate gifts on holidays such as Easter and St. Valentine's Day and mails a rented movie film each week.

Those interested in joining the Women for Weimar or in participating in its work are urged by Mrs. Farrar to get in touch with her at 99 El Toyonal, Orinda (phone Orinda 5151).

An overture of notes, staffs and cleffs, combined with autumn and holiday decorations will set the mood for the "Holiday Hit Parade." Heidi members under the supervision of Mrs. Robert B. Sheppard of Walnut Creek, chairman of decorations; and Mrs. Irwin D. Miller of Lafayette, assistant chairman of decorations; have been fashioning unusual and spectacular displays for the occasion.

The young couple became engaged recently on the third anniversary of their meeting.

Orlando, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgilio Chiavini of 1730 Parkside Drive in Walnut Creek, is presently a naval airman, stationed at Moffat Field.

Laura has lived in the area for seven years, and Orlando has been a Walnut Creek resident almost since his birth. Both were graduated from Acalanes High School in 1950.

They plan to be married when he is discharged from the service some time next fall.

USO Planning Halloween Fete This Weekend

A Hallowe'en party is scheduled for next Sunday's regular weekly USO activities at the Walnut Creek Recreation Building from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m.

All servicemen in the area — irrespective of branch of duty — are invited, whether stationed at a military establishment or on furlough.

REFRESHMENTS in keeping with the Hallowe'en theme will be donated by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Walnut Creek and the following Walnut Creek business establishments: South Berkeley Creamery, Woolworth's Five-and-Ten, Davis' Doughnut Shop, Lucky's Store and Spudnuts Shop.

In addition to the regular dancing, card playing, pool and ping pong, there will be apple dunking, a doughnut feed and similar party entertainment. Students from Richmond School of Music will offer amateur performances, including that of an accordion band.

With approximately 100 servicemen being entertained weekly at the center, the need for additional junior hostess volunteers is urgent, according to Mrs. Pat Ponzo, hostess chairman.

ABOUT 15 HOSTESS volunteers are now serving, and other young women in the Mt. Diablo area from the ages of 17 to 30 may participate by reporting to the center any Sunday afternoon.

Jack Frost served as best man for his brother. Ushers were David Wohlgemuth of Walnut Creek, brother of the bride, and Rod Dewar of Monterey.

Janet was graduated from Mt. Diable High School and Stanford University where she received a bachelor of science degree this spring.

Women Plan First Voters' League Here

Women of the Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Gregory Gardens and Concord areas met recently to discuss formation of a local chapter of the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Paul Holmer, northern vice president of the state league, presented the history, program and policies of the organization and described its functions.

Her speech was followed by a question and answer period. Twenty women present signed as willing to participate.

MRS. RAY S. LONG, who presided at the meeting, was elected temporary chairman and an informal committee formed to assist her in membership promotion and publicity. League membership is open to any person who subscribes to the purpose and policies of the League of Women Voters.

Women citizens of voting age are voting members; men, women noncitizens or women under voting age are associate members. Since there is no other local league in eastern Contra Costa County, all interested women in the area are invited to participate.

Monday evening, November 16, was set as the date for the preorganization meeting in the Williams Elementary School at 8 p.m.

At that time, committees will be formed to recommend by-laws, program and officers. Then there will be a final organization meeting when those interested will sign up, pay their dues and vote on the recommendations of the committees.

THE LEAGUE of Women Voters of the United States was founded in 1920 as an outgrowth of the women's suffrage movement. The league is interested in helping all citizens, league members and nonmembers to become well informed about the structure and operation of their local, state and national governments, important issues under consideration, and the ways the individual citizen can influence his government for the common good.

Its aim is not reform in government but promotion of the democratic process whereby many citizens are informed about their government and actively participate in it.

Anyone wishing more information on the League of Women Voters may contact Mrs. Ray S. Long, 1830 Harrison Street, Concord, MU 2-9683. Or, in Walnut Creek, Mrs. Monroe F. Smith, YE 4-8738.

CHECKING TICKETS for the Republican preparedness dinner to be held at Diablo Country Club on the evening of November 10 are officers of the Walnut Creek Republican Women's Club. Left to right, they are: Mrs. E. E. Rowland, vice-president; Mrs. Sanford Marlor, president, and Mrs. Charles Rodier, secretary. The dinner will feature as its principal speakers Governor Goodwin J. Knight and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States.

Phi Mu Alumnae At PH Meeting

Phi Mu alumnae met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Lewis Scherer at her Emerald Drive home in Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Albert E. O'Donnell reviewed the district convention held in June at UCLA, which was also attended by Mrs. Robert Horenjoeff.

Plans were begun for the annual Christmas supper. Also, plans for the coming year were discussed.

Sorority Holloween

A traditional Halloween costume party will be given by XI Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Bernard M. Wilber, 15 St. James Court, Sleepy Hollow, Orinda.

Mrs. Wilber and Mrs. Michel Banige of Walnut Creek head the social committee, while Mrs. Frank Wooten of Orinda and Mrs. Raymond Dear of Lafayette are chapter members.

GOP Women Honor Kuchel At Lyon Home

About 250 guests of the Contra Costa Republican Women's Club gathered at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lyon Monday, October 19, to honor California Senator Kuchel.

The receiving line was held on the large terrace which opened from the flower filled living room. Those participating in this line were Senator Kuchel, Mrs. Marjorie Benedict, National Committeewoman; Mrs. Gladys Penland, president of the Northern Division of Federation of Women's Republican Clubs; Mrs. Harvey Lyon and all acting presidents of the Republican Women's Clubs of Contra Costa County.

Before tea was served, Mrs. Benedict introduced Senator Kuchel to the guests and he gave a short talk in which he told of some of his humorous experiences in Washington and promised to do his utmost for the Republicans of California during the remainder of his term in the Senate.

Mrs. Marion Morrish of the Orinda club was in charge of the two beautifully appointed tea tables, one in the dining room where tea hostesses were Mrs. June Hadden and Mrs. Louise Galbraith and one on the terrace, presided over by Mrs. Ruth Jacobus.

Dainty sandwiches, cakes and cookies were served with tea and coffee. Mrs. Lyon's graciousness was felt throughout the afternoon and an atmosphere of welcome and friendliness prevailed.

Dons Out for Scalp Of Indians Today

Dons Return to The Gridiron At Crockett

Acalanes' Varsity football team returns to the gridiron this afternoon when it travels to Crockett, where they will meet up with the John Swett Indians.

Kickoff is scheduled for 3:15.

The Dons are chafing at the bit after two weeks of inactivity in competition due to a bye in the league schedule.

THE ACALANES ELEVEN must get back in the win column if the Dons are to entertain any pennant hopes.

The Dons were sailing along in fine fashion, with wins over Pittsburg and Alhambra, only to have the roof fall in when Albany upset them two weeks ago.

CROCKETT HAS a heavy team which has been an in-and-outer.

The Indians' practice schedule play was impressive.

They pulled a stunner when they dropped Antioch 25-22.

Since then they have been rapped for losses by Diablo and Pitt.

LAST WEEK Pittsburg dropped Swett by a 45-0 count, with six of the first-string John Swett players on the sidelines because of injuries.

All but Eddie Vallejo, quarterback, are expected to be back for today's game.

John Conley, halfback; Jim Hart and Gil Hanawalt, tackles, are on the injury list for the Dons and will see no game action today.

THE DONS FIGURE to be up for this one.

If that's true, look for them to chalk up league win No. 3, which will pave the way for a down-to-the-last-game pennant race.

The Dons face the Antioch Panthers and the Diablo Devils in their two remaining starts.

Diablo at this writing is the only undefeated club in the circuit.

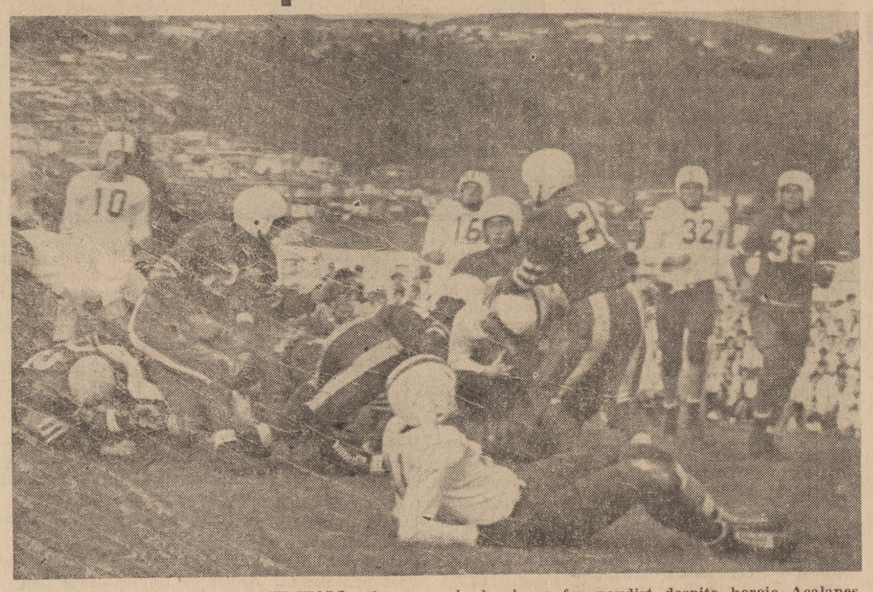
Diablo Tourney

Eight entrants in the Diablo Country Club Women's Handicap Golf Tournament went into the semi-finals yesterday, playing in four different divisions.

In the championship flight, Mrs. Hank Kusserow met Mrs. Frederica Irvin for top honors. Results will be announced next week.

In the first flight Mrs. Gertrude Reynolds met Mrs. Dorothy Shank; in the third flight, Mrs. William Van Bokkelen met Mrs. Messersmith, and in the "defeated 8" Mrs. Betty met Mrs. Evelyn Anderson.

Mrs. Harriet Bowman won the second flight in previous play.



BOOM!! STOPPED BY A BRICK WALL. An unidentiifed Albany Cougar is swarmed under by a host of hard hitting Dons. Although the Dons were able to contain the hard running Cougar backs most of the afternoon, on three occasions they broke loose for paydirt despite heroic Acalanes efforts. The Dons in on the play are Gary Howerton (22), John Champlin (28), John Conley (27), Gil Hanawalt, George Fortado and Larry Tate (32).

Next Friday It's Dons vs. Antioch

Next week's schedule finds the Acalanes Dons returning to their home field for the first home game since they met Alhambra October 9.

Antioch will furnish the opposition.

The 8 p.m. Varsity game next Friday promises to be one of the season's best.

ANTIOCH HAS a veteran eleven loaded with Seniors and has the largest club in the circuit.

Upset by John Swett, the Antioch Panthers received a 39-13 walloping from Pittsburg when they were unable to pull themselves together.

Last Friday night they staged a comeback when they all but whipped the Mt. Diablo eleven in a rock-'em, sock-'em game in which Antioch had the better of the statistics but fell short where it counted—on the scoreboard, which read: Diablo 20, Antioch 13.

Knights, Pitt Both Scoreless

The Las Lomas Knights traveled to Pittsburg High on October 22 and ended up in a scoreless tie.

The game, marred by numerous penalties, found Las Lomas playing a listless three quarters, coming to life only in the final period, with time stopping the game before any points could be scored.

THE LAS LOMAS rooters had a chance to yell in the second quarter when Rick Ostrom found a hole and rambled 50 yards down the sideline to score, only to have his efforts go for naught when one of the striped-shirt gents called a clipping penalty, nullifying the play.

The Knights gathered plenty of yardage and were inside the 20 on three occasions, only to bog down when it counted the most.

Lloyd Mangrum in Exhibition Match

Lloyd Mangrum, three time All American champion, and Hi Hennings of the Orinda Country Club, defeated Lew Worsham, World titlist, and Alameda's Tal Smith in an 18 hole exhibition mach at Orinda last Sunday.

The exhibition was sponsored by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and arranged by George S. May of Chicago. It was attended by 2000 interested spectators.

Hennings carried his share of the load by shooting a 36-35—71, and helped with the best ball score of 33-31—64. This represents the total of the low scores of both men.

Mangrum shot a birdie on the first hole, sank an eight foot putt for a birdie on the second and a 10 footer for a birdie on the fourth. This gave him a three under par and bogies on the seventh and eighth put him out with a one under par 35.

He sank a 20 footer on the 11th for a birdie, a six footer on the 12th and a seven footer on the 16th for two more.

A final birdie on the 18th brought him out with 32, two strokes better than any other member of the foursome.

Babes, Knights, Pleasant Hill— All Face Action

In the Junior Varsity circuit, the Don Babes, who are leading the league with an undefeated record, meet the Diablo Devils at 3:30 p.m. next Thursday at Acalanes.

This will be a crucial in more ways than one.

Diablo is a traditional rival. On top of that, the Devil J.V.'s have dropped but one game.

A WIN OVER the Don Babes would throw the league lead into a tie, whereas a loss for Diablo would keep the Dons out in front.

The clubs appear evenly matched in size, with the Dons having an edge, due to the passing arm of Red Jones and better backfield speed.

LAS LOMAS FACES John Swett at 3:30 p.m. next Thursday at Crockett in the Knights' finale of the season, as they draw a bye the following week.

The Knights figure to win over John Swett pretty much as they please.

John Swett has shown little in desire or ability, and Las Lomas is definitely one of the league's powers.

THE STORY SEEMS pretty much the same in the game between Pleasant Hill and Albany J.V., scheduled for Diablo's field at 3:30 p.m. next Thursday.

Pleasant Hill is top-heavy favorite to chalk up another win to its already long list.

Power rather than speed should tell the tale, with the Hilltoppers hitting the jackpot for the win.

LAST WEEK the Acalanes Junior Varsity smothered the Alhambra Bullpups, 35-12, at Alhambra's field.

On the same day, October 22, the Las Lomas Knights invaded Pittsburg for a game with the Pirate JV which ended in a scoreless tie.

Pleasant Hill drew a bye last week.

Planning of Grid Practice Schedules Causes Headaches Aplenty for Coaches

By ERWIN MATTSON

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS in football is planning practice schedules.

The amount of time to devote to various fundamentals is important.

Pass protection, kicking under pressure, kickoff returns and numerous other phases of the not-so-simple game of football are all key details.

Defense in itself has become a major problem, with new "enemy" strengths to be faced each week.

At one time everyone used a seven-diamond defensive formation.

That means seven in the line, one middle linebacker with two defensive halfbacks about five yards back and a safety man who often played as far as 15 to 20 yards back as a last resort tackler.

This defense was satisfactory because offense was pretty much the same, with most clubs using the single wing type of offense.

NOWADAYS THE DEFENSIVE problem is one of the most important.

The picture is complicated by the multiple variations of offense and men in motion and flankers.

Most teams use variations of blocking in the line, with man-on-man blocking, trap blocking and cross blocking being used.

Man-on-man, as the name indicates, means that each player takes the opposing player opposite or nearest him.

Trap blocking allows one player to come through; a player from the opposite side of the line pulls out and blocks the player from the side.

Cross blocking means that players are exchanging blocking assignments.

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS that confronts a coach in Contra Costa is byes.

The number of teams in the league results in each club drawing a bye.

The difficulty lies in getting spirited workouts with no game in the immediate offing.

Sometimes a layoff is the best thing. At least, it is better than having ineffective workouts.

The problem is when to ease up on workouts and for how long.

That's a guess on the coach's part. Sometimes he guesses right, and sometimes wrong.

It's like a quarterback calling a play. If the play goes, it was a good call. If not, it wasn't.

The trouble is that the call has to be made, and the second guessers always hold the upper hand.

Do you know it costs YOU OVER $2 for expenses when you drive through the Tunnel to shop.

Vikes Host Rams Tomorrow Night

Attempting to hop back onto the scoring and win columns, East Contra Costa will host the City College of San Francisco Rams at Alhambra High stadium in Martinez tomorrow night.

Kickoff is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Coach Hal Buffa's Vikings, still smarting from their lopsided 53-0 trouncing at the hands of powerful Hartnell College at Pittsburg last Saturday night, step out of league competition to compete against Coach Grover Klemmer's Rams.

The visitors are from the Big Seven Conference and are led by Quarterback Ray Arata, Fullback Hat Francisco, Halfback Ashford Jones and Tackle Jerry James.

27th Operation for Local Girl at Children's Hospital

Leslie Ann George, 4½, of Walnut Creek, was dismissed last Friday from Children's Hospital of the East Bay, following her 27th operation for removal of a benign growth from her vocal cords.

According to the child's physician, the growth probably will return, so that she must come back to the hospital regularly, at five- or six-week intervals, to have it removed again and again.

THIS TREATMENT may continue until the child is 12 or 14 years of age. In other words, during her childhood she may have to undergo anywhere from 60 to 70 or 80 operations to check the condition if the growth persists at its present rate.

The wart-like formation is called a "juvenile papilloma." Most papillomas drop off or disappear of their own accord when the child reaches adolescence.

Leslie's operation is performed by "laryngoscopy." A tube is inserted into the windpipe, and a cup forceps placed within the tube to gently peel off layers of the growth so that underlying tissue is not damaged in such a way as to affect the voice in later years.

LESLIE ANN GEORGE

HER DOCTOR explains that this growth does not respond to X-ray treatment, nor to most medications, although recently a compound called "podophyllum" has been used with some success in slowing down the rapidity of the growth.

Previous to coming to the Bay Area, the child was treated at hospitals in Seattle, Washington, where she had about 15 of her operations, and in Stockton. Her first operation was performed when she was a year old.

She talks without difficulty for about a month, then as the growth begins to spread a hoarseness develops, and another operation is scheduled.

IN MAY OF this year, the growth was blocking off the windpipe, and a tracheotomy was performed to enable the child to breathe. This opening in the windpipe may be left for several years, the doctor explained, so that the growth will not endanger the child's breathing.

Leslie is the only child of Robert L. and Shirley A. George of 2440 Hoover Street, Walnut Creek.

Junior Chamber Gives $100 to Therapy Center

The Quint-City Junior Chambers of Commerce presented $100 to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center building fund at a special ceremony held at Rancho Grande in Lafayette recently.

The Quint-City group is composed of the Junior Chamber of Concord, Martinez, Mt. Diablo, Pittsburg and Walnut Creek areas.

Speaker of the evening was Ira D. Kaye, president of the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce.

PRESENTATION OF the gift to the Therapy Center was made by John Kennedy of the Mt. Diablo Junior Chamber. The funds were raised at the Walnut Festival.

Kaye, who spoke on "The Guiding White Line," explained that the ultimate purpose of the Junior Chamber organization is to teach young men leadership in community responsibilities.

The Junior Chamber's main problem, he said, is to overcome indifference in civic affairs.

"NO UNIVERSITY offers a degree in leadership," said Kaye. "With faith and determination, there is no job we cannot do."

Dr. George Hurd of the Walnut Creek Junior Chamber presented Kaye with a bag of walnuts following his talk.

Wise shoppers patronize hometown merchants. They save money — and they know that the hometown merchant is interested in the community.

'Independent Adoptions' to Topic Adoption Unit Meet

Contra Costa Adoption Auxiliary will meet at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Pence, 871 Acalanes Road, Lafayette, to hear Miss Jeannette Harris of the State Department of Social Welfare of the Area Office in San Francisco speak on "Independent Adoptions."

Mrs. Jack Marchant of Walnut Creek has requested that churches, clubs and other organizations interested in hearing the speakers panel on adoption may write for an appointment to — Chairman: Speakers Panel on Adoption, Box 44, Lafayette, California.

GENERAL QUESTIONS pertaining to adoption should be sent to: Adoption Question and Answer Service, Box 44, Lafayette, California.

At the October meeting of the auxiliary, Mrs. Paul N. Pratt of Walnut Creek, president, announced services of a speakers panel on adoption are now available to clubs, churches and other organizations.

The many requests received through the auxiliary's question and answer service for information pertaining to adoption, indicates the need for a more extensive program of this type, she said.

MRS. PRATT explained that, "Investigation disclosed the fact that most lectures on adoption are given by those actively engaged in the social service agencies. Since they are specialists in their field, their time is pretty well filled and they are unable to meet the many requests for speaking engagements from interested organizations.

"The auxiliary feels that there is a real need for this service in our community. I am happy to announce that our speakers panel on adoptions is now prepared to accept engagements. It will be appreciated if bookings are made six weeks in advance because of the already full schedule."

Mrs. Roland Watterson of Walnut Creek, chairman of education, prepared the material for the group. From a study of various methods of presenting such a talk, it was decided that a speakers panel, consisting of a moderator and three lecturers, was the best method.

Mrs. Jack Marchant, Walnut Creek, chairman and moderator of the panel, devised a program in which information is given by question and answer.

New Physician On Center Staff

Appointment of Gerald G. Hirschberg, M.D., nationally known physiatrist, as consultant in physical medicine and rehabilitation at the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center was announced last week by Edmund S. Barnett, president of the Center's board of directors.

Dr. Hirschberg is now available at the Center for consultation with referring physicians on problems of physical medicine and rehabilitation.

In announcing the Hirschberg appointment, Barnett pointed out that this step will round out an already comprehensive program of therapy at the Center which serves the physically handicapped of the area regardless of the nature of their affliction.

He added that Dr. Hirschberg's affiliation with the Center is in keeping with a policy of expanding as necessary to keep pace with mounting demands for service occasioned by the population growth in the area.

Driver Training Class for Adults At Acalanes Now

By popular demand a class in driver training for adults has been added to the program at the Acalanes Adult Program.

The class will consist of 20 hours of classroom instruction, followed by 12 hours of "car time," three hours of which will be actual behind-the-wheel instructions and practice, according to Arthur Dambacher, adult program director.

All on-the-road instruction will be under the supervision of trained driver education instructors, using especially - equipped dual - control cars furnished by Sammie Evans, Ford dealer of Walnut Creek.

The class started on Tuesday evening and will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 each Tuesday and Thursday evening. The cost of the course, including all registration and tuition fees will be $7.50 for each participant.

A second section may be started in about five weeks for those people unable to get into this first group, providing there is interest shown in the community. The adult office is making a list of the names of those who wish to enroll in the second section.

The Monday and Thursday sections of Conversational Spanish are being combined and will both meet on Monday nights.

The beginning Folk-Dance class, which meets every Monday evening from 8 to 10 p. m. is now in its third week of instruction. New members are welcome to the group.

Want Spring Flower Show at Home? Here's Advice on Planting Bulbs – Now!

By BERT WRIGHT

NOW IS THE TIME to plant bulbs for early blooming next spring.

Follow these rules in caring for your tulips, daffodils and hyacinths and you will have a spring flower show.

TULIPS: Set in groups of three to a dozen of one color, pointed ends up, and five inches apart, in well drained soil.

Press the blunt bases firmly into the soil and cover over the tips with four inches of soil if medium-heavy or with six to eight inches if sandy.

DAFFODILS: Large new bulbs need six to eight inches of space between them.

Set upright in a freshly forked bed as soon as the bulbs can be had.

The necks of daffodil bulbs are longer than those of tulips, but cover them with six inches of soil.

When we came West, we found out . . .
Gas and electricity are cheap in California
says Mrs. Stanley Billett, of Bakersfield, shown with her children

How P. G. & E. low rates save the Billetts money
The Billetts' P. G. and E. bill for a recent month was $15.05
In their former home the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $32.20

"Living in California is a wonderful change for us," says Mrs. Billett, who moved West with her husband and children in 1951. "We enjoy the extra room . . . all the trees and flowers . . . the delightful informality. And because gas and electricity cost so little here—far less than where we used to live—we now enjoy the convenience of several extra household appliances."

Yes . . . gas and electricity are a real bargain in California. P. G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower now than in 1938. So let low-cost gas and electricity do more of your work . . . give you added leisure.

Needed: Good Candidates Now

To date there aren't enough good candidates in the ring for next spring's elections.

These jobs are to be filled: United States Congressman, State Assemblyman, County Supervisor, County Sheriff, and others, in Walnut Creek, three City Council chairs.

At the same time that we insist on good political candidates, we must look to no one but ourselves to find them. Therein lies a problem and a job.

Too many do not realize, or have forgotten, that the election system has its own peculiarities in rural and suburban areas and in small towns. The party system, if it works at all, is loosely constructed here; it does only a small part of the job of nominating candidates for office.

This means, in the first place, that almost anyone can become a candidate for office, with little more than the desire.

It is hardly necessary to recall that a shy and unkempt storekeeper once jumped into politics from no higher a pedestal than the plank step of a country store. And Abraham Lincoln became president.

In the second place, in areas like ours political awareness on the part of the private citizen assumes the greatest importance. The best "grass roots" candidates come from areas where people are keyed to the problems of government.

Lincoln's neighbors talked and argued all day and stayed up at night to debate issues of the times.

Substantial numbers of residents of Central Contra Costa County have that kind of political concern, too. What's more, we have numerous organizations working with problems of a political nature — improvement clubs and other citizen groups. These organizations give us the opportunity and the mechanism for finding the kind of political candidates we want.

In the past there have been too many times when we have had no other choice than to vote for "the lesser of two evils."

This happens because we fail to realize that we can and must find good candidates for political jobs. It also happens because there is much political lethargy here—along with the political awareness.

There is not much that can be done about the lethargy; it will continue for a long time. Not only are most of our citizens new to the area, but they usually came from the city where political matters are remote and commonly handled through the party system.

Even when these city-minded citizens begin to awake to the peculiarities of the rural area in which they now live, there is still another barrier in the way. The man in the family is spending most of his time in the city and his energy and attention is devoted to his work there.

Political activity in Central Contra Costa will have to go on without many of these people. Those who are aware of local problems are large enough in number and in concern to do much good.

Right now the job at hand is to search out good candidates for the government positions up for election in April.

The problem is not to find great numbers of candidates, but to find two or three good candidates for each job.

We've got to come out and say so when we find that candidates are not satisfactory.

This simple announcement will have at least two results. In the first place, those who have already announced their candidacy will perk up their ears. If they are worth their salt, they will want to come to our meetings and explain why they think we should give them our vote.

In the second place, the call will awaken others to the need to run for office. Of these, some have ability and experience, but don't think they can find any support. Others are qualified, but don't think anything can be done unless private citizens are aroused.

There is no reason to believe that we can't find good candidates once we make up our minds to do so, once we realize our responsibility.

Driver Behind You Isn't Mind Reader!

If the fellow driving the car behind yours is a mind reader, you're safe without making signals.

Unfortunately for you, less than one tenth of one per cent of the population is made up of professional mind readers.

So you'd better assume that other drivers haven't the slightest idea what you're about to do—stop, slow down, turn left or turn right.

A shocking number of all accidents are caused by slowing, stopping or turning without proper signals. That's why you can often prevent an accident by making the proper signals—letting other drivers know, unmistakably, what you plan to do.

BOO! - Comments on Goblins and Things

Tomorrow the ghosts and goblins fly, crawl or generally perambulate in manner best known to the members of the species.

Deadly serious, The SUN asked the following people the question of the week "Do you believe in Halloween goblins and witches?"

The general response was a moment of speechless silence followed by laughter which punctuated the following remarks:

ORELLIA SALONEN of 448 Nob Hill Drive in Walnut Creek said simply, "No."

Richard Sammy of 2443 Buena Vista Avenue in Walnut Creek answered, "We have to with all the kids in the neighborhood," and added he was making up some 50 packages for the trick or treat set.

MRS. R. L. EDMUNDS, 3176 Walnut Lane, Lafayette, said, after serious thought, "No — I guess I'm ust not the scary type."

"My little boy could answer that better than I can," said Mrs. W. O. Ecklund, 91 Tara Road, Orinda, "and I guess it's just one of those things that has to be. Maybe I'm a little old to be answering this question."

"OH, SURE, I think it's great sport," was the response of Mrs. Merle Shaver of 1225 Rosemary Lane in Pleasant Hill.

Young Larry Shaw of 295 Keats Circle in Pleasant Hill said, "Umm hmm, to some extent. Not very much but to some extent."

MRS. JAMES L. Duffy, 56 Longridge Road, Orinda, said, "Of course not, strictly, but certainly in fun."

B. H. Duvander of O'Connor Drive, Lafayette, said, "No, but I think it is a good idea to appear as if you do, because the kids get a lot of fun out of it."

And one lady, who did not want he name used, just said, "I'm speechless," and she was.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Here's what I think about the problem of "Slow—Children at Play" sign's and the County Board of Supervisors .

(Editor's note: This letter is in answer to a question posed in the "Under the Sun" column last Friday.)

GRANTED that the signs are limited in effectiveness — it would seem more reasonable for the supervisors to come up with some more effective measure of speed control bfore prohibiting the progress of the one small thing that has been done.

We are not lulled by a false sense of security. Any parent who has been sufficiently aroused to buy and post signs is also sufficiently interested to watch for whatever results they bring.

Our children do not play in the streets — we provide play space for them in our yards. However, they cannot play alone and to get back and forth, they must walk on the road. We din it into their little ears that they must be careful; we teach them where and how to walk.

BUT SURELY we should not have to bear all the responsibility. Drivers, too, have a moral obligation to fulfill and the signs appeal to their sense of that obligation.

So far as the number of signs is concerned, the impressionability of the modern driver is such that repetition may be the best way to put across an idea. And this business of confusing the driver — oh, come now — anyone who daily negotiates the tangle of traffic, one-way streets, high speed freeways, etc., would not be thrown by our simple message.

IF THE SUPERVISORS could give us legal speed limit zones and enforcement of those limits, we could go out and make scrap of our sad little signs.

For some reason people respond more quickly to the certainty of losing some money than to the possibility of taking a life.

With our present inadequate police force the above seems to be out of the question. In the utter absence then of any constructive official action, it would seem the theorists up in Martinez might at least refrain from putting stumbling blocks in the path of individual initiative.

Taxpayers Hear Kuchel, Condon

Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association heard both Republican U. S. Senator Thomas M. Kuchel and Democratic Representative Robert L. Condon at its annual dinner in Lafayette Monday night.

Kuchel game the main address and Condon spoke briefly.

Kuchel discussed the controversial Bricker amendment he coauthored which limits the president's treaty making power.

Under The Sun

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

SUN staffers have received "the needle" the past two weeks — literally.

The idea started when my doctor mentioned that flu shots are almost 100 per cent effective against virus A and B, old fashioned flu. I reported this at a staff meeting and asked if the gang were interested.

The result is that yesterday almost all of the staff had the last of the two-shot series. Between 1:30 and 2, the doctor and his nurse set up business in our plant. The fellows and girls lined up and were needled without a whimper.

Later, when the doctor walked into the front office, we noticed he was rubbing his arm. We asked why.

"Well," he said, "this is the first chance I've had to take the flu shot and, darn, it hurts more than I thought."

The doc has influenced us in another way. He and I recently discussed the findings of the American Medical Association — constant cigarette smoking is an important cause of cancer in men. He said AMA has conclusive proof. But amazing as it sounds, women are not affected and pipes and cigars are okay.

I related this to several fellows — and there has suddenly been an outcropping of pipes in our editorial office.

Highways engineers infallible?

I have great faith in our state highway engineers. But I get a bit hot when, in discussion with them, some have the attitude that they are "infallible."

That they are not infallible was proved conclusively to many people by a State Highway Department's recent announcement. Six million dollars will be spent to reconstruct the Bay Bridge distribution structure to provide a direct connection between MacArthur Boulevard and the bridge. This will eliminate that terrible traffic criss-cross that gives everyone a nervous breakdown when heading toward S. F. The new level will take MacArthur Boulevard traffic out of the existing tangle, giving it free access to the bridge and to Eastshore Highway.

I'll bet that you too have wondered what the engineers were drinking when they designed that traffic weave.

Jaycees at work

Eleanor and I were interested guests at the Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet last week. The Walnut Creek and Mt. Diablo clubs, along with Concord, Martinez and Pittsburg, gathered to hear their state president, Ira Kaye.

We were impressed with the purpose of this organization, which is limited to men 21 to 35. The goal is to teach young men leadership in community responsibility by participating in civic affairs. Our communties can expect good work from the Jaycees.

I thought you might be as interested in the Jaycee Creed as I was, so Dick Emory kindly loaned me his copy:

We believe:

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

Our C.D. vs. the A or H Bomb

Enlightening is the news story from Sacramento, reporting that local women participated in the state-wide Women's Conference on Civil Defense. Major General W. M. Robertson, state director, urged the ladies "to demand" that something be done to develop adequate civil defense programs in their schools and communities.

"Even though it would present some problems, every school child should have an identification tag — 50,000 have been ordered for Sacramento county children," Dr. Frank B. Lindsey, state department of education representative, said.

This is in great contrast to the rather negative and do-nothing approach of our county civil defense organization, whose sole emphasis is training a "sound cadre organization which could be expanded immediately if the need presents itself." Quoted are words from a recent county C.D. news release — the first we've received in many a moon. A cadre would hardly be a match for an A or H bomb.

Names and notes

The Grand Canyon of the Colorado in Arizona has been described as one of the outstanding natural wonders of the world and annually attracts thousands of tourists who gaze on its scenic splendors. But where is its superintendent, Harold C. Bryant, building his new home? In Orinda.

The above item was swiped from Frank Piazza of the SF Examiner.

This editor asked Sheriff James Long if he would run again. "I'll have something to say about it after January 1," Long answered.

Pan Am Captain Seth Blakeman, a local scoutmaster, piloted the Japanese crown prince from Honolulu to Wae Island . . . Orindans Ed McGah and Alec Brandon are planning to build 1,240 houses in an $8,000,000 Hayward development . . .
